THE BEGINNINGS, 1847, OF
ST. ALOYSIUS YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY
HOLY CROSS CHURCH, COLUMBUS, OHIO

The first Catholic youth organization to be formed in Columbus was at Holy Cross church. It was known as the Aloysius (or St. Aloysius) Young Men's Society, established in 1847. Holy Cross parish was the first Catholic parish in the city. (One other parish society had been started previously. The St. Catharine's Ladies' Altar Society was organized July 16, 1843, and was the first such in Columbus.)

The constitution of the society is the first recording in the book of minutes of its meetings. The book was presented to the Catholic Record Society by Monsignor Josaph A. Hakel, former pastor. The Constitution follows.

Constitution of the Aloysius Young Men's Society

Following several invitations from Rev. Fr. Schonat (1) to form a German Young Men's Society, a number of young men from the Catholic Parish in Columbus assembled on Sunday, December 12, 1847, in their local school building, and pledged themselves to raise and promote the religious and moral life of the said Society Members in a special way with the following rules and regulations.

No. 1. Purpose of the Society.

The Society which shall be called the Aloysius Young Men's Society, has as its goal the encouragement and obligation to lead a moral and Christian life; and [make] contributions to support the completion and decoration of the Catholic Church in Columbus, Ohio. Contributions shall be collected at monthly meetings and shall be the same amount for every member.

No. 2. Officers

The Society shall hold its election on the founding day; namely, the second Sunday in December, and on every anniversary of that date, and the officers shall be chosen from the members of the Society. The officers shall be President, Vice-President, first Secretary and Treasurer and second Secretary.

No. 3. Obligations of the Officers.

The President shall open and preside at all meetings, maintain order, decide the order of business and resolutions to be presented.

The Secretary shall keep a list of members and their contributions, conduct roll call at every meeting, report on income and expenses.

The Treasurer will keep the money collected and report on income and expenditures. He shall make no withdrawal of money without the written consent of the President and Secretary.

No. 4. The officers shall have the right to make expenditures in emergencies, but not more than $5.00. For larger sums the entire membership must be consulted.

No. 5. Members must actually belong to the Catholic Parish, that is they must observe the Precepts and Commandments of the Church.

No. 6. The Society has the right to expel members who give open scandal.

No. 7. Purchases of articles for the Church shall be made only on advice of the pastor.

No. 8. The Society shall have the right to add amendments to this Constitution provided they do not conflict with the purpose of the Society, and are ratified by a 2/3 majority.

No. 9. Members who have done nothing for the Society and have not paid dues for one year, shall be dropped from the membership list by the Secretary.

Amendments

No. 10. On December 9, 1854, the Society decided to raise the monthly dues from 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents to 15 cents a month.

No. 11. On July 8, 1855, the Society decided that from now on new members shall be accepted only by a 2/3 vote of the members.

No. 12. It was decided that any member who missed a meeting without excuse shall be fined 25 cents.

No. 13. On November 9, 1862, the St. Aloysius Young Men's Society passed the following resolutions:

1. That members be mutually obligated in cases of illness to stand night watches with the sick member whenever necessary except in the case of contagious disease.
2. That when illness is reported the standing committee shall investigate if a night watch is needed, and shall notify the President and Secretary. It shall be the duty of the first secretary and, in his absence, of the second secretary, to make out the daily list of members who will keep the night watches, and appoint two members for each night. It shall be the duty of the President and, in his absence, of the Vice-President, to see that the Secretary carries out this helpful duty and keep a watchful eye on it.
4. All members over fifteen years of age who do not fulfill this obligation shall pay a fine of fifty cents, and if any member fails to pay his fine within three months, he shall be dropped from the Society.
